

Youth4Clean Air Montenegro

Teaching adolescents about the importance of Air Quality

Education and local competitions

- 1000+ adolescents educated on Air Quality issues (66% girls)
- Target age was 14-17
- Local competitions in 9 municipalities in all three regions of the country
- Best teams qualified for the national competition

National Competition and Youth Projects

- Eco Camp at Grahovo
- Education workshops, human centered design and design thinking training
- 9 teams developed 9 air quality solutions, 4 received seed funding
- More than 3,000 indirect beneficiaries from joint activities

MLADI
ZA ČIST
VAZDUH

implements the regional initiative
"Youth for Clean Air".

Awareness raising and communication

- U-Report polls and discussions
- UNICEF Young Reporters producing materials and videos
- Education materials to be developed with Ministry and EPA
- Materials to be uploaded on the formal education digital platform

Youth4Clean Air Montenegro

Teaching adolescent about the importance of Air Quality